

East Carolina University

The East Carolina University Department of Surgery is presently entertaining applicants to fill the position of Trauma Service Attending. This individual is expected to join a group of academic trauma surgeons to staff the Trauma Service of our Statewide Level I Trauma Center. The Trauma Service provides tertiary care for a population of approximately 1.2 million, and is located in Greenville, North Carolina. This hospital is the only tertiary care facility for approximately 400,000 people and has an average occupancy exceeding 80%. Additional information is available at web address:

<http://www.surgery.ecu.edu/>

Compensation and academic rank based on qualifications. Preferred candidates will be board certified in general surgery and critical care and will have a strong interest in providing clinical service, medical student and resident education and fostering research.

Interested individuals are invited to send a current curriculum vitae to:

Michael F. Rotondo, MD
Professor and Vice Chair, Dept of Surgery
Chief, Trauma and Surgical Critical Care
ECU School of Medicine
Greenville, NC 27858