

Charlotte Metro Area

Gaston Memorial Hospital Trauma Surgeon Program Director Position

Trauma surgeon to establish and lead a Level III Trauma Center at Gaston Memorial Hospital (GMH), a 435 bed hospital with 90,000 plus ED visits a year, full specialty coverage with established Intensivist and Hospitalist programs.

The ideal Trauma Program Director candidate is a:

- Board-certified General Surgeon with fellowship training in Traumatology, Surgical Critical Care or a minimum of 3 years clinical experience on a trauma service
- Current provider in the ACS' ATLS course
- Recognized leader in establishing and expanding community hospital-based trauma or surgery programs

Located just minutes from an international airport and uptown Charlotte, the area offers amenities of any large metropolitan city including professional sports, the performing arts and upscale shopping and dining while providing residents of Gastonia the benefits of living in a small, family oriented community with lovely neighborhoods and good choice of public and private schools.
