

Director of EMS Services

Amid the hustle and bustle across America, Wyoming offers something unique. Open spaces, plentiful wildlife, Western independence, and communities where everyone knows your name. There is much the nature of Wyoming has to offer and enjoy.

Take the opportunity to join a hospital that, like its location, is suited to your unique nature. Wyoming Medical Center currently has exciting opportunities for motivated professionals to join our ER team. We have an opening for a Director of EMS Services. Will oversee the Ground Ambulance and Flight Program, ER, and Urgent Care, and work closely with the Trauma Program. Requires a Bachelor's degree in Nursing; Master's preferred. Must have current ACLS, ENPC, and PALS certification, and experience in a large ER or trauma center. A successful track record of staff satisfaction/service excellence is necessary, along with the ability to work exceptionally well with physicians.

Wyoming Medical Center provides a progressive, state of the art environment and offers an aggressive benefits and compensation package, including a relocation allowance.
